Spring 2021 Flex Schedule

Please Note: Instructional full-time faculty and some adjunct faculty members owe Flex hours as part of their professional development obligation. Please refer to Flex Information (/faculty-and-staff/professional-development/flex-information).

Note: No part-time faculty teaching online will have a Flex obligation in the Spring 2021 semester, even if they're teaching synchronously on Thursday and/or Friday, as the adjunct flex policies from Fall 2020 have been extended to this semester.

All District employees are free to attend any CRC Flex workshop. All workshops and presentations will be offered live at the stated time and also recorded for later viewing. The recordings will be available on CRC's Convocations YouTube channel (https://www.youtube.com/playlist?list=PLy4NC3pyYavUUoZDrK-Ry1SreRsiFXFGd) and the Professional Development Canvas (https://lrccd.instructure.com/enroll/R6XLHA) page.

Special Note: You will be more successful in these workshops if you connect using a laptop or PC so that you can fully participate in online activities.

Wednesday Workshop Descriptions

9:30 to 11:00 am

On the Path to Equity: How Far Have We Come and Where We Need To Go From Here

Zoom Meeting ID: 929 6784 3359

Facilitated by Alex Casareno, Dean of Guided Pathways and English and Language Studies; Dana Wassmer, Interim Dean of Agriculture, Food and Natural Resources/Health and Human Services; Tiffany Clark, Supervisor of the Elk Grove Center

Guided Pathways has been institutionalized as part of CRC as we have pursued equity for all students. The Guided Pathways tri-chairs will present on where we have been, and where we are going with this important equity work.

10:30 am to 12:00 pm

LRCCD Reopening Plan College Listening Session

Zoom Meeting ID: 969 3846 4430

Facilitated by: TBD

Interested in learning more about next steps toward re-opening? Have ideas you'd like to share? Join us for a listening session that briefly highlights the purpose, timelines, communication plans and key issues of our district-wide re-opening plan. The primary focus of this session will be to capture your thoughts and ideas so that a comprehensive plan that takes into consideration the insight of all stakeholders is developed.

1:00 to 2:15 pm

Question, Persuade, Refer: Suicide Awareness and Prevention Training

Open to the first 30 people who sign up. After registering, you will receive a confirmation email containing information about joining the meeting.

Register in Advance on Zoom

Facilitated by Colby Arguelles, Licensed Clinical Social Worker and Certified QPR Trainer

QPR is an Evidence-Based Curriculum to provide simple techniques that anyone can use to recognize suicidal clues and warning signs, how to intervene, and support with the person getting help. Note: QPR Presentations cannot be recorded.

1:00 to 2:15 pm

Just Mercy: Enhancing the Student Writing Experience

Zoom Meeting ID: 520 6767 230

Facilitated by Christina Washington, English Professor

Are you discussing Just Mercy in your course this semester? Or maybe you have considered focusing on this text but have not had time to plan? If so, let's work together to improve assignments. Please join us to discuss how to create engaging writing assignments for students. In this conversational, collaborative setting, we will share assignments and offer feedback on what worked and what needs improvement for essay prompts, discussion prompts, and journals. (If you have taught the class, please feel free to share an assignment. If you haven't, we hope to offer some ideas).

2:30 to 4:00 pm

LRCCD Reopening Plan College Listening Session

Update on Program Review and the College Integrated Planning System

Zoom Meeting ID: 991 0045 3502 (https://cccconfer.zoom.us/j/99100453502?pwd=SFRQQnpYWXFhNDlLUXhGRCt6U0loQT09)Password: 660352

Facilitated by Paul Meinz, IT Analyst I, Katy Wilson, Faculty Researcher, Rhonda Farley, ESL Professor/SLO Coordinator, and Sabrina Sencil, Director of Research and Equity

Last spring 2020, the Institutional Effectiveness' Program Review Subcommittee used feedback from the campus community to redesigned and re-conceptualized the program review system. These changes were then implemented by the Research & Equity team, which updates and maintains the College Integrated Planning System (CIPS). The Research & Equity team and the Student Learning Outcomes Coordinator will provide an overview of the changes made in CIPS, demonstrate the new program review template, and a timeframe for future improvements (Assessment, Unit Planning, and Institutional Planning).

Join your colleagues in conversation with the College President, Classified Senate President and LRCFT President about goals for the spring semester and beyond.

11:15 to 12:30 pm

Practices of Ungrading

Zoom Meeting ID: 938 1323 0395

Facilitated by José Alfraro, English Professor

This presentation will attend to the limits of our grading practices as they currently stand at the systemic level in higher education. After a short presentation that will help participants understand how "policing" policies continue to plague our classrooms, we will explore other strategies that can help us approach and listen to the scholarly work of our students.

11:15 to 12:30 pm

Tutoring/Academic Support at CRC

Zoom Meeting ID: 939 0596 2372

Facilitated by Ryana Fisher, Tutoring/Academic Support Coordinator

In the era of distance learning, Tutoring/Academic Support is critical to assist students in their learning, particularly as we continue to focus on closing the opportunity gap. This presentation provides an overview of Tutoring/Academic Support services offered to support students. The Tutoring/Academic Support program has undergone significant changes over the last year and half to meet the needs of students. We have successfully transitioned to online as we continue to partner with faculty across the discipline to support students. We encourage faculty and classified professionals to participate in this presentation to learn more about the services we offer and ask questions. It's important to us to hear from faculty and classified professionals to improve our services and provide robust tutoring to students.

11:15 to 12:30 pm

Update on the Institutional Self-Evaluation Process

Zoom Meeting ID: 946 4394 3420
Password: 632815

Facilitated by Kim Harrell, Interim Accreditation Liaison Officer, and Emily Bond, Faculty Accreditation Tri-chair

This year the college is preparing our Institutional Self Evaluation Report (ISER) to the ACCJC, which is the first part of our accreditation review process. Join this presentation to hear an update on the ISER drafting process including highlights from the work of the standard teams. Hear about a new element of the ISER - the Quality Focus Essay, and learn how CRC is using the review process to reflect & improve.

12:30 to 1:30 pm

Joint Senate-Union Social Hour

Zoom Meeting ID: 918 0585 1332
Password: 691759

Many of us want to do things to address equity and anti-racism in our classes, but don't know what to do, or if these updates and revisions will require formal curriculum committee approval. Come join experts from the Curriculum Committee and Teaching and Learning Leads to learn what kinds of changes you can make in your class immediately, without formal curriculum committee approval, and what changes will trigger a formal curriculum action.

1:45 to 3:00 pm

Exploring Novel Variables Influencing Student Success in Psychology Statistics Courses: A Sabbatical Report

Zoom Meeting ID: 927 4592 0629
Password: 411246

Facilitated by James Frazee, Psychology Professor

This workshop will involve a brief description of a Type B sabbatical from Spring 2020 exploring student success in PSYC 330. The presentation will include the initial findings from faculty and students concerning what factors are likely contributing to successful completion of this course that satisfies lower division mathematics transfer requirement. A second portion of the workshop will allow for a vigorous discussion of the topic with colleagues about what can/should be done in response to this pilot study. All interested staff, faculty and admin are invited and welcomed to participate.

1:45 to 3:00 pm

Facilitating Industry Advisory Committees for Career Education Program

Zoom Meeting ID: 912 9140 7236

Facilitated by Michael Frigm - Assistant Professor, Culinary Arts Management

In this session, we will review the newly revised LRCCD CE Industry Advisory Committee Handbook, including reviewing best practices and regulations found therein. We will also address/dispel institutional myths surrounding these committees and meetings in an attempt to establish an accurate and cohesive district-wide understanding of the suggested practices and current regulations. This session will include a presentation followed by a question and answer period.

1:45 to 3:00 pm

Set Up for Success: Balance, Self-Awareness and Renewal for the Spring

Zoom Meeting ID: 975 4708 9607
Password: SPRING21

Facilitated by Colby Arguelles, LCSW; Michelle Barkley, MS, PHN, BSN, RN; Mary Hansen, MSN, CNS-IH, BC-INC, PHN, RN

This workshop is designed to increase awareness in what stress looks like for you. We will help you identify barriers to balance and introduce self-reflective activities targeted at increasing emotional wellness in all areas of your life.

3:00 to 3:50 pm

Protecting the Privacy of Our Online Students

Zoom Meeting ID: 940 5520 6554

Facilitated by Pat Crandley, Distance Education Coordinator

During the Fall 2020 semester, the State Chancellor of California Community Colleges created a series of legal opinions on protecting our student's privacy in our online learning environments. Our conversation will highlight the opinions of the State Chancellor's office and provide a series of suggestions on how to continue protecting our student's privacy in Zoom and when using Proctorio to help proctor our online exams. Participants are encouraged to share their best practices and successes from their previous online classes.

3:15 to 4:30 pm

Council of Chairs

Zoom Meeting ID: 948 8256 2115

Facilitated by Cheri Fortin, Acting Chair, CRC Council of Chairs and Rick Schubert, Acting Past Chair, CRC Council of Chairs

Please join the Council of Chairs as we kick off the Spring semester! Our gathering will offer department chairs an opportunity to receive training in Ad Astra and how it can be best utilized to support the work of department chairs. Also, this session will be an opportunity to collaborate with other CRC department chairs as we share concerns, discuss interests and set council goals for the upcoming semester.

3:15 to 4:30 pm

How to Best Serve Our Students Experiencing Basic Needs

Zoom Meeting ID: 965 2563 5597
Password: hawkcares

Facilitated by Malisha Blakes, Hawk Cares Case Manager; Oscar Mendoza Plascencia, Director of Student Life & Leadership; and Yolanda Garcia, Dean of Student Services & Enrollment Management

Many students face various challenges ranging from food insecurity to homelessness. In order to be intentional in meeting the basic needs of our students, CRC has created the Hawk Cares Program to provide one central location for our students in need.

3:15 to 4:30 pm

Starfish for Math and English

Zoom Meeting ID: 946 6494 1204
